Abstract

It is a tremendous task, which we have before us: to liberate the good mankind from the enchainment to and thralldom of the temporal/physical world. But the story is not new. Ever since the dawn of times, when the Hyperborean/Atlantian/Aryans first incarnated from transcendental spirit onto earth, we have been fighting for the spiritual enlightenment and liberation of the good of mankind. For make no mistake: it is a cosmic, spiritual war between the forces of light and the principalities of darkness, who in the lieu of Second World War wield a lot of power. But we will prevail, for it is written in our DNA that the people of "the blood pact", the Hyperboean Angels, the Siddhas, and the wise warriors, the Viryas, will unite and be victorious in this final confrontation with the forces of darkness in these the latter days. Our goal is to liberate the world from psychotronic weapon-systems, the Skynet, and to create a new ethereal Atlantis for all good people to participate in. In this essay, we reflect upon Nimrod de Rosario's, an Argentinian esotericist/gnostic, seminal books on the Hyperborean wisdom and present our own clear and authoritative perspective hereupon, since we, the authors of this essay, are true Aryans of which there are not that many. The Aryans are the Hyperborean and Atlantian race, so we offer an unique and authoritative perspective on the true nature of spirit/Vril and and of the cosmic war, we are all engulfed in as the good mankind. The point of all our essays is thus and we seek to unite good people, who are awake, so that we may together contribute to the spiritual, occult and epistemic warfare for the hearts and minds of men, offering ultimate illumination of the ancient and original mysteries of the Hyperborean/Atlantian/Aryan race. Thank you and good luck on the journey.

Author's preface and ethical note

This essay explores the metaphysical and esoteric dimensions of ancient traditions, secret societies, and historical movements — particularly the Thule-Gesellschaft and the esoteric SS — from a spiritual and philosophical perspective. It does not advocate or endorse the political ideologies, military actions, or crimes of any historical regime.

The Aryan Order and the Aryan Academy stand solely for spiritual truth, freedom of thought, epistemic inquiry, and peaceful spiritual awakening. The term "Aryan" is used here in its ancient, metaphysical sense — referring to the Hyperborean and Vedic spiritual tradition — not to modern racial or political categories. This essay is part of a broader philosophical inquiry into the hidden history of humanity's spiritual struggle.

The occult history of the Aryan race and the occult war of the 21st ct.

To be precise, since the ancient Greeks, myths have been told of Hyperborea and Atlantis, and the truth is that these myths are veiled, occult references to the early stages of the history of the Aryan race. Also Vedic India and ancient Greece were originally settled by the Aryan race during the later stages of the history of the Aryan race. First was Hyperborea, the Aryans having always had a base in the Nordic countries and Germany, beyond the Northern Wind. Later was Atlantis, where the Aryans started to roam the Continent, before eventually beginning to colonize the world (India and Greece, especially, but also Mesopotamia and Egypt). The myths (or reminiscences) of Hyperborea and Atlantis center upon the people of these two civilizations having had an "intimate participation in the divine realm" (Arnold, 2018). This is the jumping point in understanding the tales of Hyperborea and Atlantis, for the original Aryans were living in "perfect accord with the transcendental aether", a thesis we develop in our paper from last year called 'Atlantis, the Vril-Energy and the Aether' (Riis-Søndergaard, 2024a). This is the understanding of the present generation of Aryans, based on insights from the global history of mythology, religion and philosophy, transcendental meditations, transcendental deduction, occult visions and first-hand experience with the mystical, occult reality of existence. This is our research method (Riis-Søndergaard, 2025a), a method that grants "absolute certainty" (Hegel, 1807) to this particular field of research, for only the true Aryans have unconstrained access to the transcendental realm and to the "minne" (anamnesis/recollection) of the true nature of divine creation and our origins as a divine race. The idea of anamnesis is put forth by Plato (385 BC; 360 BC) and the idea of minne, a German word, which implies a "loving remembrance", is put forth by Nimrod de Rosario (Luís Felípe Moyano) in his original and important works on Hyperborean wisdom (Rosario, 1985; 2022; 2023). We are currently in the midst of reading Rosario's books, but the overview we have of his oeuvre so far definitely corroborates what we in our own research have found, during the last 8 years, since the Aryan Order was founded, though we also have some nuances we would like to present to the reader. Rosario's work is important though, for not much literature exists on the topics of the true nature of the Hyperboreans and the true ideology of the SS. Back 10.000 years ago, the word population was about 1 mil. and even today we estimate that the true Aryans are no more that between 10.000 and 100.000, far less than what the newspeak term (Orwell, 1948), "Indo-European", would imply, for we are incarnations and reincarnations of the heavenly heart (in Sanskrit "samsara") and procreate in the divine realm. Therefore, it must be understood that the Aryan race is the Hyperborean and Atlantian race – first man, true cause and pure blood – and the tale of Hyperborea/Atlantis/Aryan is the tale of the Aryan Siddhas' journey in temporality, the perfected masters, and our fight for liberating the good mankind, those of the "blood pact", who also carry the minne of origin – the heroic Viryas – the wise warriors. All Aryans and all wise-warriors should read Rosario's books, as they lay out the reality of the cosmic war and the goals and strategy of the Hyperborean wisdom of the Siddhas. We will dwell on Rosario's work further, as we move along in this essay in our true telling of the Aryan race, told by the Aryans themselves. The goal of this essay is to present a true esoteric reading of the inner truth of the Aryan race and to present the authentic strategy of of the Aryans, as we perceive of it today, which is the goal of all our essays, written since 2022. We seek to redeem recent history and to liberate the world from the falsehood of perceiving the Aryan race and SS as ultimate evil – a perception, which is causing a lot of harm to the world's population, to all good people, who inherently fight for spiritual liberation from the enchainment in and thralldom of the temporal, material world. For there is a "red thread" in world history, there is a telos, and this great cause, the Aryan cause, is to defeat ontological, alien evil, and to reach aufheben – the upheaval of all good people for the eternal life – the Spear of Destiny (ultimate victory) and Holy Grail (ascension).

The original, perennial mysteries – The true nature of Hyperborea and Atlantis

It has to be said, even though we share a lot of the aspirations of the historical SS, we don't necessarily agree with all of the politics of the SS. Fx, we don't agree that the world should be conquered by force and violence. Instead, we find that the world should be conquered by faith and epistemics – an important distinction, we have to make, for it is first and foremost a battle for the soul of mankind, for the hearts and minds of men. The battle is first and foremost carried out at the third level of power, namely the latent level of power in regards to the consciousness of mankind (Lukes, 2004). To be successful on the agenda and on the actual decisions of politics, the two other levels of power, we must engage with the epistemics and faith of mankind – we must convince people to align with the Aryan cause, as we have described, to combat ontological, alien evil. Therefore, we engage in epistemic warfare, for life is lived in the spectrum of love and war, truth and deception, and namely Satan is known as the great deceiver. A saying goes that the greatest trick the devil ever played was to convince mankind that the devil itself didn't exist. This is the problem with Freemasonry/Illuminati (the instigators of Liberalism/Marxism): they are in a "Faustian pact with the devil" (Goethe, 1832), but at the same time pretend that the devil doesn't exist. They proclaim universal freedom, equality and tolerance. Ergo, they "let the devil go free" and Goethe was himself a member of the notorious Illuminati. By proclaiming these "values", they neglect the ontological regime of good vs. evil and ignore the cosmic war, what is foretold of in all ancient mythologies, the Vedas, the Greek mysteries and in the Edda – the ancient Aryan cultures. We can summarize what we have spoken of so far by listing five fundamental points of the ancient Hyperborean/Atlantian/Aryan mysteries and wisdom:

1. Incarnation of divine spirit into the temporal/material world: Known by Pythagoras, Socrates and Plato as "metempsychosis" (transmigration of the soul).
2. The transcendental aether: "The fifth element", according to the Greeks (Blavatsky, 1877), and by Colin Wilson (1971) described as "the only fundamental proposition of occultism". Known in Sanskrit as "akasha". For more on our present day understanding of the aether, see Riis-Søndergaard (2024b).
3. The cosmic war: The existential war between the forces of light (Aryans) and the principalities of darkness (demons). See Riis-Søndergaard (2024c; 2024d) for more on the current Third World War and the fight against the weaponization of Tesla-technology and other psychotronic weapon-systems – the Veda Wars.
4. Spiritual energies: Light-body/Aura, Vril (used for operating the aether), Chakras, Kundalini + others we have recently discovered, but which have not been discussed in the literature (Riis-Søndergaard, 2024e).
5. Aufheben: The final battle and victory against the principalities of darkness, the upheaval of all good people for the eternal life, the absolution of the temporal/material world. Redemption and salvation – return to origin (Riis-Søndergaard, 2022a).

This is the true wisdom of the Hyperborean/Atlantian/Aryan race and the root of all later esoteric teachings, which we in the Aryan Academy have setup a range of esoteric research and development programs (ERDPs) to engage with (Riis-Søndergaard, 2025b). So the world is a battlefield, as also Rosario describes in his books – the Valplads, as it is known in the Edda, where Odin chooses his soldiers fighting for valor and honor. It is the task and duty of the Aryan Siddhas to watch over this cosmic war and to guide and protect the heroic Viryas, who are fighting alongside the Aryans for spiritual liberation.

The secret society of Agartha and the fight for spiritual liberation

But when the romantic ages, the urzeit, of Hyperborea and Atlantis were over, when conventional war broke out, the Aryans began to colonize the world to garner support for the cosmic war. The war has always been about defeating and eradicating ontological, alien evil and to reach aufheben, the redemption and salvation of the good mankind – a return to origin, as Rosario vehemently proposes and defends. For Rosario, the temporal/physical world is basically evil, a creation of the Demiurge, Jehovah-Satan, whereas true man has his/her home, nature and destiny in the eternal spirit/Vril. He decries the "enchainment of spirit in matter and evolutionary processes" and basically eschews the natural world. For Rosario, there is nothing good about temporal existence, but for the modern day Aryans, when we contemplate this question, we would like to have a more benevolent perspective on temporality, for it is, exactly, a temporal experience, the war, that is. And temporality should not be considered merely the creation of an evil Demiurge, but exactly a battleground for the forces of light and darkness. We should be thankful that it is a war not fought out in heavens, but only in temporality, for evil only exists in temporality and therefore is only temporal. This is the point we would like to make and therefore our conception of "the temporality of war", for we will be victorious – it is written in the Book of Life (Revelations of John). Victory in the cosmic war is the telos and destiny of the good mankind, for evil is death, near death, and could never survive, but will always degenerate towards ultimate extinction – there is hope – this is the truth and law of the heart and therefore of creation. Evil has no will/Vril and therefore could never subside for long – evil has only an inherent, self-destructive death-drive in sharp contrast to life. On the contrary, the Aryans and all good people of the blood pact are driven by eros – a loving memory of our origin, home, nature and destiny – an eternal, inherent will of the divine. Another point, upon which we to a certain extent disagree with Rosario, is in regards to the idea and nature of the soul. For Rosario, the soul is inherently connected to and caught up in the temporal/physical existence, but will be shed upon the return to spirit. Even though he criticizes the Theosophy of Blavatsky as a another cloak of the Demiurge "Synarchy" of false initiation, this is exactly the belief of that school. Theosophy proposes that upon return to spirit, man will shed his/her personality and become diffused in "the One" (Blavatsky, 2007), the One, which Rosario nevertheless criticizes as being an idea of Satan. We would like to put forth the proposition that the soul will survive aufheben, for according to our belief man consists of spirit, soul and heart, which is the fundamental fabric of good people, people of the blood pact. We should not cast aside our emotions, as Rosario seems to profess, but rather understand that our emotions are from a higher realm, the divine, spiritual realm – we are not totally alienated in temporal existence, but always keep a connection to the higher realm, from where we have our heart, spirit and soul. Another point, yet again, where we seem to diverge from Rosario is in our understanding of Atlantis, for according to Rosario and also the German general Karl Haushofer, who was a member of both the Thule Society and the Vril Society, the members of the societies of Agartha (the hierarchy of good) and Shambala (hierarchy of evil) all stem from the original Atlantian civilization. Rosario calls them the White Atlantians and Dark Atlantians respectively, but here we disagree. According to our insights, there are no "Dark Atlantians", for the angels and the demons have separate origins. There are no "treacherous/fallen Siddhas", as Rosario proclaims, for the Siddhas are forever of the heart, by the heart and for the heart. There are no "fallen Nephilims", for all the Hyperborean Angels are born from the heart of the Aryan race-father and -mother, co-creators. As such, there is a clear demarcation between the forces of light and the forces of darkness and they could never share the same origin – there must be something else, overlooked in the spiritual transcripts, the akashic records, in regards to the origins of the demons and the evil hierarchy. This notion of a shared origin of good and evil we find to be a misinformation campaign of the Synarchy.

The Thule-Gesellschaft and the SS

Without a doubt, the demons do exist, so it is a war, but it is important that Agartha meditates on the question of origin of respectively the angels and the demons, so we don't fall into the trap of the Synarchy of ascribing a shared origin to good and evil. Evil is ontological alien to good – this is the ontological regime, the Aryans of today have invented (discovered). We can be misled, led astray, but our true nature and origin will always be that of the divine and we are forever guided by the truth and law of the heart – a transcendental intuition that is always the inner voice of the Virya. It might be clouded – the fog of war – due to all the disinformation coming from the malevolent Synarchy, but eventually we will find the right path, illuminated by the Hyperborean Siddhas, who today are all united in the Aryan Order and who are the muses of the Holy Spirit. Today, in the Kali Yuga, it is important that this inner voice, which Socrates called daimonion (Plato, 399 BC), is magnified and given strength, for we are living in the latter days, where the "Liberator Gods", the Hyperborean Angels, have incarnated to bring spiritual enlightenment and liberation, redemption and salvation, to the good of mankind. We might not agree that Germany should have engaged in war with the allied forces, expropriated territory etc., but we wish to emphasize that there are two forces at work in the two World Wars. Responsibility of the wars should not only be given to one part of the conflict, but the complexity of the military strategic situation should be acknowledged. Today, when we contemplate the cosmic war, we find that the primary war is spiritual, psychic and occult war, as we describe in Riis-Søndergaard (2024f). Of course, it is still metapolitics and geopolitics, but the primary focus in reaching our goals should be the psychic war of the consciousness of mankind, "the psychosocial strategy", as Rosario calls it. This is the true motive of the Thule-Gesellschaft and the SS. So it is a psychic war and therefore we have established the military wing of the AO, namely the International Defense-force of Aryans (IDA). In the IDA, we have established the Epistemological Warfare Division (EWD) and conceptualized the Stratagem (Riis-Søndergaard, 2022b). The Stratagem, which means "cunning of warfare", consists of three aspects: 1) Discourse, 2) Epistemic front and 3) Confrontation. This is how we operate our strategic movement for the spiritual enlightenment and liberation of mankind – the true motive of the SS, which we feel is adamant to clarify, so our conception of world history is no longer skewed in favor of the Synarchy. The Thule-Gesellschaft is basically the precursor to SS and has its roots in an organization of Hyperborean initiation, established by John Dee, the English mystic, who conspired with other kameraden to safeguard the Hyperborean mysteries for future generations, developing a long-term strategy to combat and defeat the Synarchy. But among the Aryans, this knowledge of Hyperborean wisdom and initiation has always been known, since times primordial, for it is in the "blood memory" of the Aryan race – the minne. This is the blood pact that all good people participate in. Problem is that since the Second World War much has been done to obscure the picture of world events, wherefore we must once again seek the hidden undercurrent, the deeper layers (Evola, 2002), of world history and recent history for us to awaken and prevail in the cosmic war. The conventional wars have largely been fought. Now is a time of occult, epistemic war in the battle of absolute truth vs. deception and "false consciousness" (Adorno & Horkheimer, 1944) – the third, latent level of power. In ancient times, the minne was perceived in the scrying of the "language of the birds", in inspired dance and in the lithic science. Today, when the Aryans are once again united to operate the Holy Spirit, good people, the wise warriors, may once gain look towards the skies for clues as to the true nature of creation and the strategy of the Aryans in the cosmic war – this is metapolitics. We are in the latter days, in the final battle of Kali Yuga, before entering a new golden age, a new ethereal Atlantis, eventually reaching aufheben, so good people should stay alert and as much as possible contribute to the epistemic war, not to mention "the war against Skynet", the final attempt/sigh of the dark forces.

Modern day organization and metapolitical agenda of the Aryan race

Of course, as Aryans of today, we have to inform people of the imminent threat of psychotronic warfare – Skynet, as we call it, inspired by the film Terminator from 1984. Nevertheless, it is a very real threat and actuality, which the Aryan leadership can verily affirm. Basically, it is the last attempt of the forces of evil to attack and hinder the Aryan race from creating the new ethereal Atlantis and what could be more speculative and evil than to attack the spiritual energies, the crown-chakra and light-bodies, of the Aryan leadership, when we are in fact a spiritual collective? What could be more aggressive and violent in defiance of the good, than attacking such an essential aspect of our lives as our spiritual energies? Read more about the current military strategic situation in our paper from last year, called 'Operation Thunderstorm – Resistance to Skynet'. Today is truly the Twilight of the Gods, the Götterdämmerung, the Ragnarok, but we will prevail. The war today is deeply occult, carried forth in the spiritual, conscious and epistemic spheres of mankind. But it is important to know that the SS, in the run-up to the Second World War, discovered an international, sinister plot to attack the holy Aryan race with Tesla-towers. Therefore the intensity of the war. Would you not change your hypnotic, trance-like notion of the Aryan race and SS being "ultimate evil", when you consider that the SS reacted as they did, when they discovered the existence of a conspiracy so utterly nefarious as to attack the holy spiritual energies and psyche of the Aryan race with psychotronic weapons? For it is a spiritual war and if there is one thing the evil demon cannot comprehend it is the spiritual energies, bliss, love and joy of the Aryan angels. Such deeper layers of world history need to be brought forth, so the public may probably understand the complexity of the cosmic war and world history. The Demiurge hates our emotions to be precise, exactly because evil has no heart. This is the absolute truth of the war, we now present, and we hope academia, military and politics will sincerely take heed of the call of the Hyperborean/Atlantian/Aryan race and side with the Aryans in this ultimate cosmic war. The powers-that-be, the Synarchy, attack our spiritual energies, psyche, faith and love in the most vilest manner, so they must be resisted, combated and defeated. As Aryans, we have sworn an oath, the white vow, to never tolerate evil and to combat and defeat evil, wherever it arises. We make a plea for the good mankind to follow the lead of the Aryans, so that we may together create a much better world of spiritual enlightenment and liberation – this is the metapolitical agenda of the Aryans of today. We must cast away the usurpers of "the global control society" (Deleuze, 1992), "the global network of corporate control" (Vitali et al., 2011), "the economic despots" (Marsden, 1934), the NWO (Riis-Søndergaard, 2025c), in short, the synarchical system, which is "enforced" by Tesla-towers and other psychotronic weapon-systems. In this regard, we perfectly understand Rosario's idea of the spirit being enchained in the temporal/material world. Our enemies are hell-bent (Churchill was a member of the Hellfire Club) on trying to prevent the Aryans from reaching our ultimate goal of a new ethereal Atlantis, of aufheben – really why we wish to emphasize this idea of "resistance to Skynet" – obviously because in the absolution of temporality evil would loose its claim to exist at all. So it is a war, but it is first and foremost a spiritual war – we need to keep being strong in the face of the antagonism on the part of the principalities of darkness, who today wield a lot of power in the world, having murdered 20 mil. SS soldiers – Dei Militia of the Aryan race. But all is not lost, for good people, people of the heart, still inhabit the most of the world, but good people need to be clever, aligning with the Aryan cause and connect on this marvelous journey of the soul in temporality, seek guidance from the Holy Spirit and contribute to the great cause in the war of faith and epistemics. It is in the everyday situation and communication with other good people that we build up each other, rather than letting "the system" tear us down. In this way, the synergetic effect of many individuals working towards a greater goal, we will be able to accomplish our tasks and duties and eventually reach ultimate victory.
